

SCRIPTURE WRITING PLAN

Commit to being a PRAYING PARENT.

These specific Scriptures have been prayerfully chosen to remind you of your calling as a parent and the necessity of praying for your children. Although there are many other verses that God can use in your life, we chose these specifically so that you could spend intentional, prepared time praying for your children using God's Word without having to question where to look!

Adrian Rogers said, "The weakest ink is better than the best memory. Study with pen in hand."

As you write down the Scriptures below, take the time to ponder them, personalize them, and pray them over your children. Grab your pen and Bible and get into the Word of God!
