1) INTRODUCTION

- a) 2 Samuel 11 is a dark chapter in the history of the life of David.
 - i) This is the chapter where David committed adultery.
 - ii) At this time, David was at the zenith of his career.
 - (1) It seemed as if he had everything right at his feet and that God was blessing him in a wonderful way.
 - iii) He was a man after God's own heart, and he really loved the Lord.
- b) One of the ways that we know that the Bible is an inspired book is that it does not gloss over the sins of the saints.
- c) 2 Samuel 11:1-5
 - i) In verse one, the word "but" tells us that this was not the time that David should have been in Jerusalem.
 - ii) David committed a horrible sin.
 - (1) He was, nonetheless, a man after God's own heart.
 - (2) And David was a great repentor.
- d) Today's message will focus on the sin of adultery.
 - i) It is very important that we speak clearly and forthrightly concerning the sin of sexual impurity, fornication and adultery, because it is eating away at our nation and creeping into the lives of some who profess to be Christians.
- e) Young people today are being told that sexual immorality is not all that bad.
 - i) We're told that we have gone through a moral revolution and that old-fashioned laws or morality are out of date.
 - ii) We are living in the "anything goes" generation.
 - iii) Because of this, our young people and adults alike are being pulled into sin and ungodly philosophies.
- f) David sinned against his marriage.
 - i) David did not understand the beauties of a monogamous marriage.
- g) Marriage is divine in creation.
 - i) God's plan is for one man to be married to one woman until death do them part.
 - ii) Marriage is the first institution created by Almighty God.
 - (1) Marriage came before laws.
 - (2) Marriage came before government.
 - (3) Marriage came before civilization.
 - (4) Marriage came before the church.
 - (5) God gave to man marriage even before God gave to man a system of worship.
 - iii) Marriage comes from God.
 - iv) There are those who have tried to stamp out marriage and to eradicate it.
 - (1) They try to tell us that marriage is a social invention, but it is not.
 - v) Mark 10:6
 - vi) God put into man a mating instinct for one man to be married to one woman.

- h) Of all human relationships, marriage is the supreme commitment.
 - i) Mark 10:7-8
 - (1) Your supreme relationship is not to your parents.
 - ii) Your relationship to your spouse is a stronger tie than your relationship to your mother and father.
 - iii) You are to love your children and care for them, but they are not your supreme earthly commitment.
 - (1) Your commitment to your spouse is a stronger commitment.
 - iv) Your business is not your supreme commitment.
 - (1) If your business wants to move you to another city or state, is that where God wants you to go?
 - (a) You have no right to move around unless God leads you to do that.
 - i) Marriage is to be faithful in continuance.
 - i) One man is to be married to one woman until death do them part.
 - (1) We are to stay married, and that marriage is to be a pure marriage.

- 2) HE SINS AGAINST HIMSELF (1 CORINTHIANS 6:18)
 - a) 1 Corinthians 6:18
 - i) The word "fornication" means "sexual immorality."
 - (1) It is the word from which we get our word "pornographic" or "pornography."
 - (2) It can mean sexual immorality before marriage or after marriage.
 - (a) Adultery is the name of sexual sin after marriage, but sexual sin after marriage may also be called fornication.
 - ii) When God is saying here to flee fornication, He is saying in the larger sense to flee sexual immorality.

 - iii) We are members of the same body.
 - iv) What hurts one, hurts the other.

 - iii) It led to the downfall of Egypt.
 - iv) It led to the downfall of Babylon.
- c) Adultery is the enemy of the home, and the enemy of the home is the enemy of the nation.
 - i) As our homes go, so goes our nation.
